

Without telling your friends anything about the story below, ask them to help you fill in the blanks with the type of words indicated below each blank—a name, a noun, a verb, and so on. Chances are, when you read back the story with the blanks filled in, it will be hilarious!

_____ was so excited for the last day of school. She was going to give girl's name her best friends _____ to commemorate the end of the year. She was noun
sure they would love their gifts.

Next, she was going to spend the beginning of summer at _____.
place She'd never been there before, but she was excited to see it. While she was there, she would try new things like _____ and _____, and she verb verb
couldn't wait to taste _____. Maybe she would even learn how to cook type of food
it herself!

Next, she was going to camp to master her _____. She was going to activity learn _____, _____, and _____. By the time camp skill skill skill was over, she was sure she'd be winning every contest and starring in every performance!

After camp, she was going to visit her _____. She couldn't wait! She type of relative knew that together they would _____ and _____ and
verb verb
bake _____.
type of food

But she was also excited to get back home to her friends at the end of the summer. Before school started again, they would _____ and _____ and definitely eat lots of _____. Before she knew it, it would be time for the school year to begin!

